PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Church,

Have you ever felt like you've "started off on the wrong foot?" You never know what sort of curve balls life will throw your way. The Stark family's New Year got off to a really bad start (but things are looking up now). My wife is a "New Year's Baby," so we decided to go to a movie on New Year's Day to celebrate. Since our son Elliott was born at the end of December, it was the first time we had all decided to "go out" to do something together as a family. We stopped at the Oak Creek Target to get some movie snacks in order to avoid the 8-dollar-a-box candy at the theatre and as I parked my car I noticed a "gas" smell. It turns out that smell was actually oil and the rear-main seal in my engine had broken. I spent the next 2 hours in -8 degree weather on the phone with AAA trying to get my car towed while Sonia and the kids wandered around Kohls and Target to keep warm and occupied. The tow-truck driver wished me well, but he told me things didn't look good. The next day I found out things really weren't good at all. I learned that my engine was shot and would cost approximately $7700 in parts and labor. Happy New Year? Happy birthday? No...not at all. All this has made me think about how fragile and unpredictable life really is. We all have our ups and downs. One day things can be good—really good—and the next, you or your family might face financial ruin, an accident, medical issues, or the loss of someone close to your heart. All this makes me think about Lent, which will be upon us in the next couple weeks.

It sometimes helps to think about Lent in contrast to Advent. However, both of them are seasons that have to deal with hope. Whereas Advent is the contemplative journey of God's people hoping and waiting for the arrival of the Messiah – Jesus' birth on Christmas, Lent is the spiraling journey of Jesus and his friends towards his inevitable end at the cross.

Lent marches us onward towards the Last Supper, the final meal Jesus had with his disciples before he was arrested, tried, and crucified.

Pastors Letter Continued

It is at that meal that they shared, I think, where the “car breakdown” moment really clicks for me. Everything seemed fine one minute for Jesus and his friends – and then the next, everything was upside down. They were friends, gathered around a table enjoying a meal as they always had – and then, in the backdrop, something was at work that would cause the breakdown – the betrayal, arrest, and so forth. All things can change in an instant. Though we might feel like God is distant in those moments – perhaps God is closer than we know. I know I didn’t feel like God was very close when I heard the service tech utter “$7700” to me. However, I suspect that God was especially close, as Jesus experienced the ephemeral, life-changing-in-an-instant, world-changing moment as the authorities arrested him after the Last Supper. Happy New Year? I think not.

It is my prayer that as we engage Scripture which takes us on Jesus’ inevitable journey to the cross, that we can recognize our own “breakdown” moments and how they are, like the cross, not the end. There is hope. Like Advent taking us to the manger, the cross does not end Jesus’ story. It actually begins his story all over again. Would I like a fresh start on 2018? You betcha, but it is not possible. What is possible is recognizing that God is with us in the midst of the ick of breakdown moments – even if we don’t feel like it. These moments are not the end, but they are, in their own way, a new beginning. May you have a meaningful Lenten season.

Blessings,

Pastor Dan Stark

PRESIDENT’S LETTER

Recently, two teenagers found themselves caught in a rip tide current while swimming off the coast of Canberra, Australia. Newly developed technology enabled the lifeguards to dispatch a drone that had been equipped with a floatation device. Within two minutes the teens were on their way to solid ground. The lifeguards reported that they were able to reach the struggling swimmers much faster, safer and more effectively than had they done a sea rescue in the conventional way.

Certainly a story with a happy ending. However, what of the years of training for the traditional rescue? What of the drills, practice and continual physical exercise the lifeguards endured to be mentally and physically prepared for the process of launching a boat, rowing as a well-coordinated team, equipped with floatation and medical supplies and the medical training? There are also questions if this is appropriate for all situations. Will the greater community fund the extra expense? Could this reduce the number of lifeguards needed? Is reducing the number of guards a good thing or a bad thing?

The church leadership and by extension, the congregation, had been dealing with these same questions for many years; not only new technologies but also the development of new process that challenge how we do things. While there have been many questions, many areas of uncertainty and much uneasiness with new and unfamiliar patterns, the question and concern over our effectiveness of leading people to a more solid spiritual ground must lead our thinking.

At the January meeting of the Church Council, the ground work was laid to begin an assessment of the effectiveness of our policies, practices and priorities. In light of the new technologies and processes available to us, are we as responsive and efficient at fulfilling our role of leading people through stories with spiritually happy endings.

The Presidents Letter Continued:

To that end, the council has begun to establish three committees. One will review and recommend updates and revisions our constitution and by-laws. Another will examine our practices in light of the 5 practices which are the hall mark an exemplary, focused and dedicated group of God's people. The third will focus on the church calendar, as the activities of the church are a reflection of the balance of church life as shared by the traits of hospitality, intentional faith development, worship, mission/service, extravagant generosity.

Perhaps you have noticed changes over the last several decades. There have been changes in the church, in the culture around us and within ourselves. That will continue. What we can do together is to effect changes that will lead to more stories with happier spiritual endings.

Paul Mayeshiba
Church Council President

Online giving is now a possibility! If you're in the pew and you'd like to give something other than cash or a check, you are encouraged to use your phone to visit www.christchurchbayview.org and tap the donate button at the bottom. You can pay with an existing PayPal account or with any credit card. It's easy and it saves your information for the next time you visit! Want more information about online giving? See Pastor Dan or contact the church office at 414-481-3530.

OPPORTUNITY: A WEEKLY NEWSLETTER IS HERE

You can also see who's signed up to read, greet, usher, or if there's a need for volunteers. If you're interested in receiving the Christ Church Weekly, contact the Church Administrator \(christ-church@att.net\) to be added to the list (414-481-3530).
